

UPCOMING GREEN EVENTS

Event descriptions and additional details regarding each event can be found in the Lead On resource book and the GO! Magazine.

GREEN TEEN:

ENVIRONMENTAL AMBASSADOR

During this overnight event, you can receive Environmental Ambassador training, participate in projects with environmental professionals, discover environmental science-related careers and learn about advocacy and leadership. Upon completion of the event, you will be ready to head back home to form your own "green team" and conduct an environmental project for your local community. This unique program is made possible through support from GSUSA and Lockheed Martin.

Who: Girl Scout Cadettes, Seniors, and Ambassadors

Fee: $10/girl, $5/adult

November 6-7, 2009 - Camp Pretty Pond

February 5-6, 2010 at Camp Hardee

March 26-27, 2010 at Camp Hardee

ENO EXCURSION

We will need our boots or water shoes and a big smiles as we wade into the water to learn about water bugs. We will take a hike then round out our adventure by doing a service project for the park.

GIRLS GO GREEN:

TROOP CAMPING

Girl Scouts always leave a place better than they found it, and the earth is no exception! Troop leaders, bring your troop to learn how to help our environment and get back to nature by participating in archery, a campfire with s'mores, and other outdoor activities.

Who: All Girl Scouts

Fee: $30/girl, $30/adult

November 13-15, 2009 at Camp Pretty Pond

March 19-21, 2010 at Camp Hardee

COOL SPRINGS

Have hands-on fun while learning about the many habitats filled with animals of varied species and plants that grow abundantly throughout the tract. Learn how to tell how old a tree is and how well it's growing. Visit various locations with the possibility of finding animal tracks and then determine their direction of travel. Girls will earn a Try-It, badge, or interest project award.

Fee: $5/girl, $5/adult

October 10, 2009 - Girl Scout Juniors

October 31, 2009 - Girl Scout Cadettes, Seniors, and Ambassadors

November 7, 2009 - Girl Scout Brownies
