Join us for the weekend as we have fun learning some basic hiking and camping skills. Sleep in a tent, sample some lightweight foods, cook your meals on a trail stove, and make a first aid kit. Plus, choose the ten things every hiker needs, make a hiking stick, take a hike, and much, much more. You'll be able to use these skills whether you go day hiking or backpacking. No special clothing or gear are needed – just a duffel bag with your clothes and personal items, a poncho, and your school book bag to use as a day pack. This is a great opportunity for you to see if you'd like to try the Pines High Adventure trip, "Footprints in the Clouds." Adult registration is for adults who are learning how to plan and carry out a backpacking trip.
