Troop Mentor Program – New Leaders on the Block

Girl Scouts - North Carolina Coastal Pines' Troop Mentor Program (a.k.a. New Leaders on the Block) is a council-wide initiative that serves to welcome, engage, and advise new troop coleaders through various forms of support and guidance. A troop co-leader's first year or two is crucial! Troop co-leaders play an integral role in Girl Scouting; it is through their leadership and service that girls have the opportunity to experience the world of Girl Scouting. With the proper support network and resources, co-leaders will be better equipped to provide a more meaningful experience for girls. In support of providing a comprehensive co-leader experience, there are three main goals of the Troop Mentor Program:

- ENGAGE new co-leaders to participate in and embrace their Girl Scout network
- CONNECT new co-leaders to programs, resources, and opportunities
- EMPOWER new co-leaders to provide exceptional leadership to girls

While the structure of New Leaders on the Block (NLOTB) can be customized based on the needs of each area and service unit, the success of the program relies on the efforts of the troop mentor coordinator, troop mentors, and the commitment of the service unit team to support their work and the mentoring program. There are three components that all area or regional New Leaders on the Block programs should have:

- Troop Mentor Coordinator
- Team of active troop mentors
- Guidelines and approaches for new co-leader support

Troop Mentor Coordinator

The success of the Troop Mentor Program is dependent on the work of our troop mentor coordinators. To be successful, each area or service unit should select and appoint a coordinator to facilitate the program for their area. The troop mentor coordinator, in collaboration with the service unit team, membership director/manager, and the Learning and Development Team, identifies the needs of the area or service unit, coordinates the logistics, implements a mentoring system, and helps evaluate the program.

Troop Mentors

Troop mentors serve as council ambassadors to new co-leaders. Troop mentors are active within service units, passionate about Girl Scouts, and have a deep desire to help new volunteers. As Girl Scout Troop Mentors, volunteers make a positive difference, watch their Girl Scout network expand, learn by teaching, and leave a legacy all while having fun! Troop mentors are Girl Scout volunteers who understand that need of initial support and how to be a good friend. Whether it's making a quick friendly phone call with words of encouragement, sharing advice and tips, or passing on valuable Girl Scout knowledge and traditions, troop mentors give co-leaders valuable support, which helps create a positive experience for new troop co-leaders.

Customizing New Leaders on the Block in Your Area

There are several components of the New Leaders on the Block program that keep it consistent council-wide: a troop mentor coordinator, troop mentors, support for troop co-leaders, and partnership and communication between the troop mentor coordinator, service unit manager, and membership director/manager. While these elements are the cornerstones of the GS-NCCP mentor program initiative, the program can look very different from service unit to service unit or region to region. Below are some examples of how each service unit can customize the program to meet the needs of their area and their volunteers:

- By Girl Scout Grade Level This system pairs mentors with mentees based on Girl Scout grade level, allowing the troop mentor to provide grade level specific support to small groups of new troop co-leaders. This structure works well for smaller service unit teams.
- By Geographical Area Troop mentors are appointed to a geographical area to offer support, share ideas, and provide information about local opportunities. This system works well for large areas that are separated by smaller geographical units.
- By Group This approach offers the opportunity for groups of new troop co-leaders to meet in a centralized location or virtually with a local troop mentor. During this meeting, the troop mentor could offer an enrichment, share a SWAP idea or craft, discuss badgework, and answer questions.
- With Troop Mentor "Office Hours" In this program customization, troop mentors have the flexibility to offer a structured meeting time or something that is more casual. Office hours can be offered in-person or virtually and can be more like the group approach or simply be a time for volunteers to connect, engage in a team building exercise, or have time for Q&A.
- By Region This model follows the group and "office hours" where troop mentors from an area offer either in-person or virtual meeting time as a group or office hours to troop co-leaders that could be from their service unit or from an outside county or service unit. This initiative is in place to provide support to volunteers that may not have a troop mentor program in their area and would like to participate. Please see Appendix D for a list of New Leaders on the Block programs and who to contact.

For all New Leaders on the Block programs, we recommend that the program has the following:

- Troop Mentor Coordinator/s
- Troop Mentors
- A support system for new troop co-leaders
- Partnership and communication between the troop mentor coordinator, service unit manager, and membership director/manager
- Local level and regional level contact information Troop Mentor Coordinators, Service Unit Managers, and Membership Directors/Managers.

T205a/7-2025 Page 5 of 15

Although these components are the cornerstone of the program, we encourage you to explore new opportunities and bring fresh ideas to the program. However, if you are unsure of where to begin, we recommend utilizing the New Leaders on the Block: Year-at-a Glance (see page 4) quarterly and annual timeline. The month-to-month timeline offers a structured support system to help get you started. As you connect with troop mentors and complete the touchpoints, you will be able to observe the success of the program. Troop mentors will share the positive impact they have made in the Girl Scout experience of a new troop co-leader. You will also be able to learn more about the additional areas of support needed for new troop co-leaders in your area/s. Through online resources like the council website and Rallyhood, your membership director/manager, and our learning and development team, you will be able to offer guidance to troop mentors and ensure the delivery of a quality mentor program in your Girl Scout community.

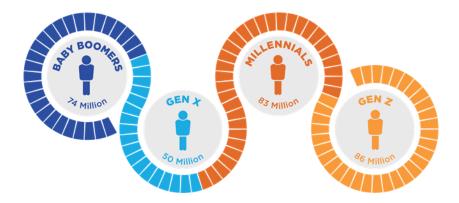

If you have questions related to New Leaders on the Block, please reach out to the learning and development team at learning@nccoastalpines.org.

Considering Generation Gap Approaches

At Girl Scouts, we are fortunate to have volunteers that are from numerous generations – from Baby Boomers to Gen Z and many generations in between! When thinking about generations, there are different learning styles, communication preferences, communication patterns, and leadership approaches. This does not mean that any one generation is superior. It just means that what works for some volunteers may not work for others. Troop co-leaders use this same approach with our girls. Each girl is unique and that is what makes Girl Scouting and our Movement special! When considering generation gaps, we encourage troop mentors to:

- Welcome diversity and generational differences
- Avoid stereotypes and focus on working to understand and value differences
- Communicate openly and respect boundaries
- Discover and expand on commonalties
- Consider various learning styles and be willing to share information in multiple ways

If you have questions about generation gap approaches, please reach out to the learning and development team at learning@nccoastalpines.org.

Troop Mentor Role and Responsibilities

Troop mentors are more than just ambassadors for new co-leaders; they can be a friend! They welcome new troop co-leaders and introduce them to the world of Girl Scouting and familiarize them with support systems and available resources. Troop Co-Leaders are paired or grouped with troop mentors throughout the year. To ensure success, troop mentors are asked to commit to the program for a full year.

Troop Mentor Role

Do you remember your first few months as a troop co-leader? You probably had many questions and might have even felt confused. Below are important ways troop mentors support new co-leaders:

ENGAGE new co-leaders to participate in and embrace their Girl Scout network	<ul> <li>Welcome new troop co-leaders to the Girl Scout community</li> <li>Connect new troop co-leaders to the area/service unit team by making introductions at a meeting and ensuring they understand the role of the service unit and the administrative team positions</li> <li>Invite troop co-leaders to attend your or a fellow volunteer's troop in-person or virtual meeting to get firsthand experience</li> <li>Invite troop co-leaders to join social media outlets like Facebook or the service unit Rallyhood page for area and service unit updates</li> </ul>
CONNECT  new co-leaders to programs, resources, and opportunities	<ul> <li>Introduce them to the "Who to Contact" list (see Appendix)</li> <li>Encourage them to participate in co-leader trainings and explore online resources:         <ul> <li>Volunteer Toolkit (VTK) Tutorials</li> <li>Troop Banking: Getting Started and Making Changes</li> <li>Leadership Launchpad (Register through Activities)</li> <li>Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging Training</li> <li>Don't forget to utilize other helpful new co-leader resources like Volunteer Essentials and Lead On! A Go-To Guide for Co-Leaders</li> <li>Encourage them to attend co-leader events and activities</li> <li>Council and service unit events</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
EMPOWER new co-leaders to provide exceptional leadership to girls	<ul> <li>Share past experiences and best practices</li> <li>Offer guidance regarding the first troop and parent meeting</li> <li>Share tips on how to incorporate the GSLE (Girl Scout Leadership Experience) into troop meetings</li> <li>Offer secondary support during council sponsored product sale programs (Fall Product Program and Cookie Sale)</li> <li>Schedule regular time to meet informally and face-to-face</li> </ul>

Troop Mentor: Year-at-a-Glance

Below is an overview of what troop mentors can expect throughout the year. This timeline will vary depending on the start date of the new troop mentor.

First Quarter  The goal for the initial contact and the first three months with the new co-leader(s) is to establish yourself as a reliable resource who they can feel comfortable contacting.	<ul> <li>Complete Troop Mentor Program training via gsLearn</li> <li>Meet with or make initial contact with assigned new co-leader(s)</li> <li>Check-in with assigned co-leader(s) monthly</li> </ul>
Second and Third Quarters The goal for the second quarter is to maintain consistent contact with the co-leader(s), offering continued support and guidance.	<ul> <li>Conduct second quarter check-in with assigned co-leader(s)</li> <li>Conduct third quarter check-in with assigned co-leader(s)</li> </ul>
Fourth Quarter The goals for the fourth quarter are to assist co-leader(s) with wrapping up the year, transitioning to the next program year, and evaluating their Girl Scout experience.	<ul> <li>Conduct fourth quarter check-in with assigned co-leader(s)</li> <li>Complete and submit troop mentor survey to troop mentor coordinator</li> </ul>

Who to Contact

New troop co-leaders will have many questions and you, as their mentor, may have questions yourself. No worries! We are always happy to help! For a list of who to contact and where to look when you need answers or help, check out the "Who to Contact" page in the Appendix.

Engaging Co-Leaders

Every troop co-leader is unique, and as a troop mentor, you will want to meet the individual needs of each co-leader. The Girl Scout Law offers some things to remember when working with your assigned troop co-leader(s):

- Friendly and helpful ☺ Whether it is on the phone or in person, smiles are contagious. If you are smiling, the new troop co-leaders will be smiling, too!
- Considerate and caring New volunteers often do not know the questions they should be asking. Troubleshoot unasked questions by providing co-leaders with helpful suggestions, ideas, and pointers.
- Use resources wisely Our Girl Scout network is huge! If you are not sure how to answer a question, rely on our network by visiting our website at www.nccoastalpines.org, contacting your area's membership director/manager, or the Learning and Development team at learning@nccoastalpines.org.
- Be a sister (or brother) to every Girl Scout Do your best to make them feel comfortable and welcome!

T205a/7-2025 Page 8 of 15

Troop Mentor Initial Touchpoints

We have made it super easy to be a troop mentor! With the use of touchpoints, you will be able to help new volunteers successfully navigate the Girl Scout year. Although these touchpoints are based on an August start date, they can be modified to accommodate different start dates throughout the year.

After a new troop co-leader onboards and you have been notified of a new leader in your area from the area troop mentor coordinator, we encourage mentors to reach out to the new leader within 48 hours. Making contact early is key for making new volunteers feel welcome and supported. The purpose of the first contact is to welcome them, briefly introduce yourself, and let them know you are available as an additional resource.

Here are some of the main points you will want to cover when contacting your mentee(s) the first month:

Ш	Welcome/Introduction – welcome the new volunteer to Girl Scouts and get to know one another
	Introduce them to the Troop Mentor Program
	Ask if they have completed their onboarding gsLearn trainings and if they have questions about how to access them
	Assure them you are there to help and provide support and guidance
	Offer to answer questions they may have now or in the future
	Arrange a date and time for your next meeting or phone call (this follow-up connection should happen within the first two weeks of your initial contact)
	Ask if they have completed Leadership Launchpad training in person or on gsLearn
	(this training is to be completed in their first 60 days as a new troop co-leader)
	If you are a troop co-leader yourself, invite your mentee(s) to attend one of your troop meetings to provide first-hand experience
	Invite them to the area's service unit meeting

Troop Mentor Quarterly Touchpoints

The first three months for new troop co-leaders are crucial. New volunteers receive a lot of information, and they might feel overwhelmed and confused. As their mentor/friend, your role during this time is to help ensure a smooth transition into a leadership role in Girl Scouts. At this point, you have already made a connection and welcomed them to Girl Scouts. Your next few touchpoints or meetings will be more informational. Be ready to answer questions and connect them with information that will set them up for success! By the end of the third month, the goal is to establish that you, as the troop mentor, are a reliable resource. Here is a suggested timeline and touchpoints for the first three months:

New Leaders on the Block and Program Map

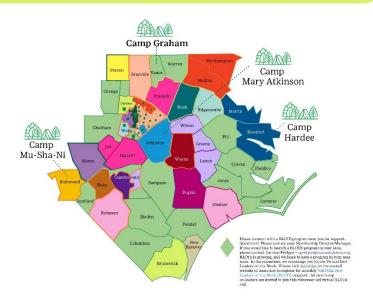

New Leaders on the Block (NLOTB) is a council-wide Troop Mentor Program that focuses on supporting new troop co-leaders in-person or virtually throughout our council footprint. This program serves volunteers locally and regionally. For volunteers that are in service units that do not have a New Leaders on the Block program, this can be extremely effective and helpful. New Leaders on the Block regional programs offer flexibility – in-person and virtual meetings throughout the year plus time for engaging activities. The mentor programs will vary from area to area and are contingent on volunteer leadership and participation. Please see below for New Leaders on the Block programs and program team leads. To connect with a NLOTB program near you, please use the contact information below. If a volunteer resides in a county that is light green in color on the map, please encourage them to connect with a nearby NLOTB program for mentor support. To launch a NLOTB program in an area that currently is light green in color, contact Learning and Development – learning@ncoastalpines.org.
