Troop, Service Unit, Product Program, and Outdoor Volunteer Roles and Descriptions*

Troop Volunteer Roles	Description
First Aid/CPR Certified Adult aka “Troop First Aider”	Are you safety conscience, always thinking ahead and making sure you’re prepared for anything? We require at least one First Aid/CPR/AED trained and certified adult to accompany troop trips and outings. Sound like you? We offer training programs to get you certified and, on your way, to becoming a troop first aider.
Outdoor Certified Adult	Do you love the outdoors? Share your passion and help girls develop an appreciation and respect for the outdoors. Who knows, you may even spark an outdoor enthusiast like yourself! As an outdoor certified adult, you will bring the Girl Scout camping tradition to life, assist the girls to prepare to go outdoors, accompany your troop on camping trips, and ensure proper Girl Scout camping and outdoor safety procedures are followed.
Troop Co-Leader	Are you looking for the perfect opportunity to be a role model for girls? Do you want to help girls discover the possibilities within them? As a troop co-Leader, you will partner with another volunteer to help plan and lead troop meetings and bring the Girl Scout program to life for the girls in your troop!
Troop Cookie Program Coordinator	Can’t say no to a box of Girl Scout Cookies? Get in on the Girl Scout cookie fun while helping girls learn valuable life skills. As the troop cookie program coordinator, you will share information about the program, track and distribute cookies to your troop, and keep up with troop sales. This is a great opportunity for someone who is very organized!
Troop Fall Product Program Coordinator	One of the best ways for troops to raise funds for activities and adventures early in the program year is to participate in the Fall Product Program. As the troop fall product program coordinator, you will help your troop reach its goals with this quick and easy program.
Troop Support Volunteer	Whether driving, acting as a first aider, chaperoning a trip, or leading a stem badge, you can use your skills and talents to support the troop and the girls! The girls need you to ensure their adventures are safe and successful.
Troop Treasurer	Be an integral part of your girl’s troop by managing the troop finances and steward the troop’s funds. If you enjoy keeping up with the checks and balances, this is the perfect role for you! Plus, your volunteerism will help free up the troop’s co-leaders time to focus on leading the girls!
Troop Trip Chaperone and Driver	Share the Girl Scout experience with your girl by serving as a troop trip chaperone and driver. You’ll transport girls to/from events and ensure everyone arrives safe and on time.

Service Unit and Product Program Volunteer Roles	Description
Adult Learning Facilitator	We're always looking for volunteers to join our team of adult learning facilitators. Our adult learning facilitators train volunteers in various areas including First Aid CPR, Outdoors, and New Co-Leader LIVE! We welcome current and past volunteers as well as parents and community members interested in supporting the Girl Scout Mission. Sound like the role for you? Volunteer today!
Adult Recognitions Coordinator	In this role, you'll help recognize amazing volunteers by coordinating local recognition and appreciation events. You will also work with council staff and area volunteers to promote and nominate individuals for council level awards and recognitions.
Area Cookie Program Coordinator	If you have a love of Girl Scout Cookies and a heart to help others, then the area cookie program coordinator is the perfect role for you! In this role, you can help troops succeed by promoting the Girl Scout Cookie Program, providing support, and managing the details of the program for your area.
Area Event Director	Use your organization and planning skills to plan local events like a fall trip to the pumpkin patch or a Daddy & Me Dance for the troops, girls, and volunteers in your community.
Area Fall Product Coordinator	Who doesn't love chocolates, candies, trail mix, nuts, and magazines?! As the area fall product coordinator, you can help troops earn startup funds for the year by promoting this quick and easy program, providing support, and managing the details of the program for your area.
Area Treasurer	Are you a numbers cruncher and organized? Then, the area treasurer is the role for you! Area treasurers are responsible for collecting and depositing funds, monitoring revenue and expenditures, and maintaining proper record keeping of the area bank account.
Cookie Booth Coordinator	Are you in touch with your local community? Help troops reach their cookie sale goals and boost their sales by developing and fostering relationships with local businesses willing to welcome and host Girl Scout Cookie Booths at their locations.
Cookie Cupboard Coordinator	Help make cookies more accessible to the troops in your community by serving as the cookie cupboard coordinator and housing and distributing cookies during the annual Girl Scout Cookie Program.
Cookie Program Rally Coordinator	As the cookie program rally coordinator, you will share your excitement for the Girl Scout Cookie Program by planning an event to promote and kick off the annual Cookie Program. When girls attend a local cookie rally, they learn selling safety tips, boost their sales, and understand the benefits of participating in the sale.
Council Delegate Alternate Council Delegate	In this prestigious role, you will have the opportunity to represent your area as a member of the council's governance system and you will serve as your area's voice at the Annual Meeting (held in March).

Fall Product Program Rally Coordinator	As the fall product program rally coordinator, you will share your excitement for the Girl Scout Fall Product Program by planning an event to promote the Fall Product Program and help troops earn startup funds for the year.
Girl Scouts Give Champion	Every girl deserves the opportunity to be a Girl Scout! In this role, you will lead your area in a campaign to raise funds for GS-NCCP financial assistance. You will support and encourage troops, recruit potential donors using best practices, and help more girls be Girl Scouts.
Media Coordinator	Extra! Extra! Read all about it! Do you enjoy the ins and outs of local media and social media? With this role, you can help spread the word about all the amazing things Girl Scouts are doing in your area and keep volunteers and caregivers informed of Girl Scouting in your community.
New Member Recruiter	Would you like to see Girl Scouting grow in your community? As new member recruiter, you can help expand the reach of the Girl Scout program by assisting with securing new troop meeting locations and troop formation events. Volunteers serving in this role expand the Girl Scout Movement in their area and empower new volunteers as they begin their Girl Scout adventure.
Service Unit Manager	Our service unit managers are passionate, well-informed, and experienced in all things Girl Scouts! As a service unit manager, you will share your knowledge and passion with the volunteers in your community and organize the area's ongoing efforts to support the coleaders, girls, and troops in your community.
School Captain	Do you have connections to a specific school in your community? As a school captain, you'll serve as the liaison between, and an advocate for, Girl Scouts and your assigned school. In partnership with council staff, you will help increase visibility and knowledge of the Girl Scout Program with girls and parents of the school. This is a great role for Girl Scout parents already actively involved in their girl's school.
Troop Mentor	Have you successfully started a new troop and feel new leaders would benefit from your knowledge and experience? As a troop mentor, you will have the opportunity to share your Girl Scout experience with at least one new troop by lending your support and experience to new troop co-leaders. And remember, being a troop mentor is easy, just be a friend!
Troop Mentor Coordinator	Do others come to you for advice and support on troop matters? As a troop mentor coordinator, you will have the opportunity to share your knowledge of the Girl Scout Program by supporting other mentors in your geographical area. Being a troop mentor coordinator is as simple as being a leader and a friend!

Outdoor Related Volunteer Roles	Description
Day Camp Director	As Day Camp Director, you will help plan one of summer's most anticipated events, Girl Scout Day Camp! In this role, you will work with a team of fellow volunteers to plan and coordinate activities for the girls, manage and recruit volunteers to lead, and watch as girls experience new adventures and make new friends!

Day Camp Volunteer	Are you a camper at heart? Spend a week with girls and fellow volunteers this summer at Girl Scout Day Camp! Help the day camp director plan, organize, lead, and deliver new adventures to girls in your local area at Girl Scout Day Camp!
Outdoor Certified Adult	Do you love the outdoors? Share your passion and help girls develop an appreciation and respect for the outdoors. Who knows, you may even spark a girl or fellow volunteer into becoming outdoor enthusiast like yourself! As an outdoor certified adult, you will bring the Girl Scout camping tradition to life, assist the girls to prepare to go outdoors, accompany your troop on camping trips, and ensure proper Girl Scout camping and outdoor safety procedures are followed.
