

VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION
GIRL SCOUTS GIVE CHAMPION

SUMMARY:

The Girl Scouts Give Champion is responsible for planning, marketing, and managing the Girl Scouts Give campaign in their assigned service area.

TERM OF APPOINTMENT:

The Girl Scouts Give Champion is appointed for a term of one program year but may be eligible for reappointment.

ACCOUNTABILITY:

The Girl Scouts Give Champion is accountable to the Service Unit Manager, Membership Director, and Fund Development Manager.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Raise awareness of and motivate participation in the Girl Scouts Give campaign
- Work in partnership with the Service Unit Manager, Membership Director, and Fund Development staff to set strategy and goals for both the troop and area campaigns
- Work in partnership with the Service Unit Manager, Membership Director, and Fund Development staff to establish appropriate ways to market the campaign
- Provide ongoing campaign updates and recognition for participating troops at service unit/area meetings
- Maintain giving site, including customized messaging and pictures and running reports (optional, but Champion should work with the Fund Development Manager if an offline campaign works better for the area)
- Participate in Girl Scouts Give Champion best practice webinars to share with and learn from peers
- Help the Fund Development Manager follow up with receivables/balances due for Troop pledges; collect and deliver funds to the council as needed
- Remain informed about and comply with all current policies, procedures, and guidelines (Volunteer Essentials and Safety Activity Checkpoints) of Girl Scouts-NCCP and GSUSA and adhere to all Council Fund Raising standards

Due to the range of responsibilities for this role, we recommend that the Girl Scouts Give Champion position be filled by a volunteer without other Service Unit roles or be split by two volunteers, as appropriate for the Service Unit.

QUALIFICATIONS AND CORE COMPETENCIES:

Girl-led Focus: Empower, encourage, and guide girls and volunteers to understand Girl Scouts' girl-led, learn-by-doing, and cooperative approach to developing a girl's leadership skills.

Personal Integrity: Serve as a role model for volunteers guided by the Girl Scout Mission, Promise, and Law - modeling reliability, dependability, honesty, credibility, respect for others, respect for self, inclusivity, positivity, and a spirit of collaboration.

Adaptability: Adjust, modify your behavior and remain flexible and tolerant in changing situations and environments.

Oral Communication: Practice positive communication skills and express ideas clearly and accurately.

Foster Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Belonging, and Racial Justice: Understand, respect, and embrace individual differences

Additional Requirements:

- Registered member of GSUSA and a valid background check
- Completion of any required training assigned and provided by Girl Scouts - NCCP and GSUSA
- Email, internet, and texting capabilities for consistent and effective communication, document sharing, and research

I accept the volunteer position responsibilities and will adhere to the qualifications listed above for the term of appointment unless my volunteer service is terminated earlier by the council in its sole discretion. I agree and understand that during my appointment as a volunteer of GS-NCCP that I am volunteering and I am not entitled to any payment or compensation for the services which I render to GS-NCCP or on GS-NCCP's behalf and I further understand that by serving in this volunteer position I am not an employee or an independent contractor of GS-NCCP.

Girl Scouts Give Champion Printed Name: _____

Girl Scouts Give Champion Signature:

Date: _____ County: _____

Complete and provide copies to: Girl Scouts Give Champion, Service Unit Manager, Membership Director and Fund Development Manager

VPD111/7-21